

SOURCEPANEL

> EXPERTS ON DEMAND

BEYOND BUSINESS AS USUAL

SourcePanel has hundreds of technology consultants, engineers and project managers in multiple categories – searchable by both skill type and brand. All experts use English as a primary language, and are based in US time zones. SourcePanel verifies skill levels, certifications, and references, and all experts are under non-disclosure agreements.

SourcePanel has developed a simple user interface which streamlines the job scoping process. Automated notifications make collaboration easy, and your “My Panel” page makes managing multiple projects a snap.

SourcePanel offers a 100% satisfaction guarantee.* SourcePanel’s matching algorithm ensures timely response and accurate skill set matching. Experts receive regular updates on new features and must meet ongoing customer satisfaction requirements to remain in good standing.
